

CUE Card

for Writing a Constructed Response

After you read the text...

R Read the question slowly/carefully.

E Establish what the question is asking you to do.

A Add highlights or note what facts/evidence you want to use in your answer.

D Decide what you think you want to say.

W Write key words from the text in your first sentence or topic sentence.

R Restate or reword the question.

I Include evidence or details from the text in your answer.

T Type your answer carefully.

E Examine your answer. Ask: does it answer the question? Does it make sense?

©Charlotte Knox at knoxeducation.com

CUE Card

for Writing a Constructed Response

After you read the text...

R Read the question slowly/carefully.

E Establish what the question is asking you to do.

A Add highlights or note what facts/evidence you want to use in your answer.

D Decide what you think you want to say.

W Write key words from the text in your first sentence or topic sentence.

R Restate or reword the question.

I Include evidence or details from the text in your answer.

T Type your answer carefully.

E Examine your answer. Ask: does it answer the question? Does it make sense?

©Charlotte Knox at knoxeducation.com

CUE Card

for Writing a Constructed Response

After you read the text...

R Read the question slowly/carefully.

E Establish what the question is asking you to do.

A Add highlights or note what facts/evidence you want to use in your answer.

D Decide what you think you want to say.

W Write key words from the text in your first sentence or topic sentence.

R Restate or reword the question.

I Include evidence or details from the text in your answer.

T Type your answer carefully.

E Examine your answer. Ask: does it answer the question? Does it make sense?

©Charlotte Knox at knoxeducation.com